DATE

: December 15, 1975

At Mr. Duckett's request, I responded to a telephone request of Ms. Sheketoff to furnish her with additional information concerning the briefing of hold items to members of Congress and Congressional Committees. My response was made by phone after discussing the request with Mr. Duckett,

25X1

I informed Ms. Sheketoff by phone that the list of congressional briefings which she had been furnished was as complete as we could make it based on available records. Ms. Sheketoff then asked the circumstances under which congressional briefings took place, i.e., who requested them and why. I responded that all briefings of individual Senators, Congressmen, and staffers had been requested by the individuals concerned through our Legislative Liaison Staff. Some Committees and Subcommittes had been briefed at their request; other briefings were given at periodically scheduled sessions.
